Overview Diagram

7.1 Procedure for SAM

- The customer initiates a discussion with the SAM, during the monthly or quarterly reviews
- SAM coordinates with the Sales and the Delivery team to prepare the pitch for the new engagement that was initiated from the customer requirement
- The new requirement could be any of the following scenarios
  - New technology introduction
  - Developing new Business line
  - Leveraging the benchmarks to industry standards
- In all the scenarios the SAM will collaborate with the Delivery, Practices, Human Resource (HR), Resourcing, and the Talent Acquisition teams
- Delivery is to provide the possible execution plans
- Practices with best fit solutions
- HR and Talent Acquisition will ensure the number of resources are ready for deployment

- The SAM communicates with the client on a month on month basis, as part of the Business Review Meetings. The meeting are participated by the CTO or the Senior Management cadre
- Based on the requirement of the client for the proposed opportunity, SAM connects with the Training department for technological updates, which are reviewed by the Delivery teams
- SAM team will have a discussion regarding the Customer Feedback during their monthly review with the client
- SAM also has to identify and recommend resources currently placed at the engagements for Technical, Non-Technical, and Project Management trainings. So as to provide opportunity for employee growth and retention with the organization.
